Todd Stuart's new venture, "Petite Mort" (you have to look up the translation of this french slang term yourself (LOL) in the premises of the old Start Anise in Shenton Park will be the venue for our EOY dinner when we also celebrate the 50th Birthday of our group!

Todd built his fame as head chef of "Bouchard" in West Perth and we enjoyed his food there a couple of years ago already. Don't miss it!

As a little birthday present we invite all members, present and past, to come to this dinner at the members price.
Happy Birthday :)
